Act Like You Got Some Sense!

Rev. Shorter will be present at the weekend masses of February 24-25 and he will also give a summary of each day's theme after the 8:00 am mass.

Fr. Melvin A. Shorter, C.P. is the first of two children of the late Edith and Melvin Shorter. He was educated in the public school system of Baltimore Maryland, graduating from Baltimore City College. He also attended Coppin State College where he majored in Secondary Education. In 1981, he entered the Passionist Novitiate in Pittsburgh, PA. and in 1982 he took first vows as a Passionist and entered Catholic Theological Union earning a Masters of Divinity with an emphasis on Word and Worship. Upon graduation, he was ordained in New York and he has served God's people in Pittsburgh PA, Greenville NC, Atlanta GA, Harlem NY, and Paris France. While in Paris, Fr. Melvin ministered with an ecumenical commission in Paris and served as one of several chefs who weekly provided a three-course, sit down, served lunch for the hungry. Fr. Melvin is now assigned to Our Lady of Florida Spiritual Center in North Palm Beach where he will continue his Itinerant Preaching and assisting on the Retreats as needed.
