CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

The Catholic Charities Appeal officially begins May 1. You are encouraged to mail in your pledge and to support the Appeal as generously as you can.

Programs supported by the Appeal help people in all phases of life – from children, to youth, to parents, to the elderly. Numerous agencies, programs, and ministries provide food and shelter, educate children and adults, and meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of thousands. Your support of the Catholic Charities Appeal helps us to meet these needs.

BE STILL

All are welcome to join us in the Chapel at 8:45 a.m. this Wednesday, May 2, for a period of prayerful reflection and stillness, facilitated by Judy Burt Walker.

After Mass please join us for refreshments in the Parish Center.

CLARIFICATION ON E2 SOLAR OFFER

It was apparent last week that there was some confusion about E2 Solar's offer to St. Joan of Arc Parish which was announced at last weekend's Masses.

The offer is: If you use E2 Solar to install a solar panel system, E2 Solar will make a $500 donation to St. Joan of Arc Parish, IF you say that St. Joan of Arc Parish referred you to E2 Solar. I hope this clarifies any lingering confusion about E2 Solar's offer to our parish.

SOLAR POWER BLESSING RECEPTION

The St. Joan of Arc Knights of Columbus express their gratitude and appreciation to all who participated in the Earth Day blessing last Sunday and the reception that followed. We especially wish to acknowledge with immense gratitude the wonderful and exquisite culinary contributions prepared by several members of the SJA Ladies Guild. Numerous fresh baked desserts and pastries accompanied bountiful fresh fruit offerings. So, special THANKS to all who attended and to those who helped make it happen.

QUO VADIS DAYS

Once again the Diocese of Fall River Vocation Office is running Quo Vadis Days from July 9-13 at Betannia II Retreat Center in Medway, MA. This retreat/camp is a great time for boys ages 14-19 (those entering high school to those entering college) to seek to grow in their faith and fraternity, learning how to discern what is one of the most important things in their life: their vocation. Throughout the week there are times of prayer and sports, talks on living the faith and understanding the different vocations, Mass and Adoration, mountain hiking, and fraternity. It is a great chance for them to build friendships with others their ages who are living their faith, as well as to get to know the seminarians of the Diocese. It is a wonderful time and the cost is only $100. If any young man is interested, please fill out the Quo Vadis brochure available in the church or email Fr. Kevin Cook, Director of Vocations at frcook@holyfamilytaunton.org for a brochure.

SAVE THE DATES

This year the Diocese of Fall River is very blessed to have one young man being ordained to the transitional diaconate and three men to be ordained priests. Please plan on attending these great gifts of Holy Orders being given to them at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in Fall River. Ryan Healy is to be ordained a Transitional Deacon on Saturday, May 19, at 11:00 a.m. Deacons Matthew Gill, Juan Carlos Munoz, and Daniel Nunes are to be ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, June 9, at 11:00 a.m. Please join us for these beautiful occasions, and please keep these men in your prayers.

FROM ROOT TO FURTHEST SHOOT

Every gardener knows planting a few seeds can lead to a great adventure: a few squash seeds can produce a few vines that manifest a few blossoms; that produce a few more seeds; that produce still more vines that begin to blossom... and so it grows! The gardener learns that not every blossom produces a 'squash', but the vines themselves show vigorous life from root to farthest shoot. Artist Pat Owen, who spent two years in the Peace Corps in West Africa, spread concern for a woman held in detention for lack of legal documents. The woman had come to the U.S. as a fiancée. The man was so violent she refused to marry him, found a janitorial job, and began to put herself through college. The furious 'intended' husband kept her papers.

Getting new documents from her warring country was out of the question. Due to lack of proper papers, Immigration first required her to wear an ankle bracelet and then held her in detention for six months. While the woman was detained, Pat Owen, as an act of solidarity, created sets of beautiful cosmic postcards expressing deep faith in the God of infinite wonder and blessings. Each card said simply: You are loved. Pat produced packs of these cards and distributed them to friends to send to the distressed woman. These friends not only sent the cards but reproduced them, and gave them to their friends to send – who in turn sent them to their friends.... The postcards spread like a living vine to express solidarity. The immigrant woman set the record for the most mail ever received by any detainee!

The Gospel calls us to bear fruit in a world that is global and cosmic. We are to respond to the earth and its inhabitants as a common family. Just as all the branches of a vine share the life-force of a single root, so we share our common 'root' in the Cosmic Christ. We are all 'artisans' of the common good – our willingness to use earth's resources gratefully and mindfully; our attitudes of hospitality and graciousness, our spirit of kindness and generosity create in the present that which future generations will inherit.

As we reflect on the many facets of the well-known parable of "The Vine and the Branches", may we consciously choose to abide in the Living Christ and to live in such a way as to bear good fruit – fruit that will nourish our families, our communities, our world – and the generations to come
